Director of Fixed Income

Employees Retirement System of Texas (ERS)

The Employees Retirement System of Texas (ERS), located in Austin, is a $23B+ AUM investment program. This position reports to the Deputy Executive Director of Investments and provides oversight of funds allocated to the fixed income markets, including both externally advised and internally managed fixed income portfolios.

An advanced degree in business, finance, economics or accounting is preferred, as is a CFA. Substantial experience in cash management and fixed income investment management is required, preferably with a "buy-side" institutional investment organization. A strong understanding of macroeconomics and "top down" economic analysis is also required.
